Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C.

121:

- I. Claims 1-33, drawn to compounds, compositions where $n=1$, classified in class 544, subclasses various based on the nature of various X and/or R variables such as 360 when pyridyl is present; 357 when piperazinyl is present; 377 when benzdioxinyl or benzdioxolyl is present; 393 when no hetero rings are present; class 514, various subclasses.
- II. Claims 1-33, drawn to compounds and compositions where $n=2$, classified in class 540, subclass 575; class 514 subclass 218.
- III. Claims 34-39, drawn to multiple uses employing compounds of I, classified in class 514, subclasses various based on the nature of X and/or R.
- IV. Claims 34-39, drawn to multiple uses employing compounds of II, classified in class 514, subclass 218.

Whichever Group is elected applicants must further elect a single species within that group.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Compounds within I and II relate to compounds having separate cores with a diversity of substituents present thereon not only on phenyl ring but also at Y and R5. As a result they are separately classified even within a single core as the piperazine core does not itself control classification but rather the nature of substituents thereon does as can be seen in the class 544 schedule beginning with subclass 358 through 410 and in class 514 subclass 252.12 through 255.04. Each can support a patent as the compounds of each group are capable of being utilized alone not in combination with other members listed in the Markush group and are not art-recognized equivalents.

Inventions I/II and III/IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case from a reading of the specification a variety of uses are urged for the compounds of the invention which may raise separate issues from an examination of just the compound/composition claims.

A telephone call was made to Ms. Kriegsman on 6/5/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Emily Bernhardt whose telephone number is 571-272-0664.
